COMMITTEE NOT LEGALLY CALLED

No Disposition of Appellate Nomination.

Young Holds Election Not Necessary In 1906.

Convention Called In Ninth Congressional District

IN MAYSVILLE SEPTEMBER 1.

Lexington, Ky., July 30.—[Special.]—A meeting of the Democratic committee of the Sixth Appellate district, which was expected to select the time, manner and place for naming a candidate to succeed Judge J. M. Lassing, recently appointed by Gov. Beckham to fill out Judge Paynter's unexpired term, was held here to-day, Chairman W. A. Young presiding. No convention was called, as the committee held that official notice had not been served on the members of the committee, and Chairman Young contended that a successor to Judge Lassing could not be elected till November, 1907.

When the committee was called together to-day Chairman Young gave it as his opinion that the committee had no authority to act, as it had not been regularly called, the usual official notice not having been served on the members, and that in his opinion a successor to Judge Lassing, according to a recent decision of Chief Justice Hazlerigg of the Court of Appeals, could not be elected at the regular 1906 November election, because of a constitutional provision, and that according to Judge Hazlerigg's opinion the successor to Judge Lassing on the Appellate bench cannot be elected until November, 1907.

"Judge Lassing has not yet assumed his duties on the Appellate bench, and will not do so until August 1, according to his commission, and it would be farcical and foolish for us to call a convention to name his successor," said Chairman Young, in ruling on the question.

Lassing Differs From Young.

Judge Lassing, who is a candidate to succeed himself, and who was present, differed from the chairman's opinion. He said that while he agreed with the chairman that a meeting of the committee had not been regularly called, still as a majority of the committee were represented a meeting could be held then as well as at any other time, and that it would be for the good of the party for the committee to hold a meeting at once and settle the time and manner of nomination, whether his successor was elected this year or next, which could be decided later.

The chairman stated that he had said he would call a meeting of the committee to be held in Lexington to-day, and that he had intended to do so, but deciding later that a successor to Judge Lassing would not be elected till next year he had not sent out the notice to the members of the committee, who had assembled simply on the strength of newspaper interviews with him. He held that the whole meeting to-day was informal and unofficial.

Judge J. O. Osborne, of Cynthiana, who is said to be a candidate to succeed Judge Lassing, agreed that Chairman Young did not have a right to issue a call for a convention. There were several of the informal meetings of the committee held during the afternoon.

New Meeting On August 4.

Finally later in the afternoon the whole question was brought to a decision by the following call presented to Chairman Young:

W. A. Young, Chairman of the Committee of the Sixth Appellate District: We, the undersigned members of the Sixth Appellate District Committee, hereby petition you to call a meeting of the Sixth Appellate District Committee on August 4, 1906, at 1 o'clock at Mayville, Ky., to fix a time and place for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals of the said Sixth district of Kentucky, to be elected at the November election of 1906.

(Signed) BARNEY KOCH, J. B. O'NEAL, BAGEN SCHULTZ, GEORGE O'ROURKE, J. R. ROBERTSON, H. C. DUFFY, V. J. HENDERSON.

This call was presented to Chairman Young, who said to-night that he would act in accordance with the call, and would issue notices for a meeting of the committee on August 4 at Mayville.

Fifteen out of the eighteen members of the Appellate District Committee were present, as follows: C. C. Ewing, Bath; H. C. Duff, Harrison; George O'Rourke, Kenton; W. J. Read, Nicholas; Bagen Schultz, Kenton; J. J. Osborne, Harrison; J. O. O'Neal, Grant; Barney Koch, Pendleton; Matt Hennessey, Bracken; Rolla K. Hart, Fleming; J. H. Fraley, Rowan; Harvey Meyers, Kenton; A. B. Rouse, Boone.

MRS. COREY GETS DIVORCE

Also Awarded Custody of Her Son.

Secret Financial Settlement With Her Husband.

Defendant a Fast New Yorker, Says His Sister.

THE BOY ON THE STAND.

Reno, Nev., July 30.—Mrs. William Ellis Corey, wife of the president of the United States Steel Corporation, was awarded a divorce in the Second District Court of Nevada, sitting at Reno, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The case was submitted without argument and the jury took but one ballot. It was out but a few minutes.

Mrs. Corey was in tears when told that she had been given a decree and the custody of her sixteen-year-old son, Allan Corey. She drove at once to her home on Riverside avenue, where she says she will continue to reside. No evidence was submitted by the defense and there was no argument.

The question of alimony was not introduced. Mrs. Corey made an interesting admission, however, touching upon this phase of the case, stating that in May, 1906, several weeks before her petition for divorce was filed, she negotiated through her attorneys a financial settlement with her husband. She was not asked what the nature of this settlement was.

"I am a resident of Reno, Nev.," said Mrs. Corey, when placed on the stand, "and the wife of William Ellis Corey, the defendant in this action. We were married December 1, 1883, at Pittsburgh, Pa., and lived together until May 1, 1905. At that time my husband deserted me and went to New York. I followed him and held a conversation with him in the Hotel Lorraine. It was there that he told me that he had decided to live apart from me. He said that it was impossible for us to live happily together and that I would never see him again. He stated that he intended going to Europe for several months. There was no scene. I talked with him about the matter, and urged him to again resume his place in our home, but he refused. I have never seen him since."

In Reno For Her Health.

Mrs. Corey added that she came to Reno for her health, and that she had no intention of bringing an action for divorce at the time she took up her residence in Nevada. She stated that her sister-in-law, Mrs. Addie Corey, that they considered this place their future home, and expected to live here in the future. She stated that she was best suited for the custody of their son, and asked the court to place him in her care.

Mrs. Corey was visibly affected while telling her story. She testified without evasion and in clear voice. Her attorney feared that she would collapse, as her health has suffered since the separation. In his opening statement her attorney, J. R. Redding, of New York, stated that she had been driven to a separation and the divorce proceedings by the sensational stories printed in the newspapers.

"It is true that newspaper notoriety was the principal factor in your separation from Mr. Corey and is responsible for this divorce proceeding," asked Benjamin Currier, another of her attorneys.

"Such is not the case. The stories that may have appeared in the press had nothing to do with it," said Mrs. Corey.

Likes Fast Life.

Miss Addie Corey, sister of the respondent, was an interesting witness. She corroborated Mrs. Corey's statement that Corey had deserted his wife, and told how she and her aged mother have made several ineffectual attempts to effect a reconciliation.

Her brother, she said, had lost sight of his home, being absorbed in business and infatuated with the fast life of New York.

"Do you consider Mr. Corey a proper custodian for his son?" she was asked.

"I do not," she replied.

"For the reason," she said, "that he is not a proper person for his son to associate with. He has no home and his associates are not fit companions for a young man of Allan's age. I do not think any New York man is fit to have charge of a boy of his age."

"Do you mean all New York men, Mrs. Corey?" continued the attorney.

"I mean wealthy New York men."

Praised Mother To Son.

Allan Corey stated that at the time of the hearing his father called him to his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother. He said he was too young to understand the reasons. He then said that his mother was a good woman, and that my place was at her side.

Several witnesses were introduced to establish the residence in Nevada of the plaintiff, all being citizens of Reno. At the conclusion of the trial Attorney Sardis Summerville, of Reno, stated that his client, William E. Corey, was as anxious for the decree of divorce as his wife. "If the decree is granted," he said, "Mr. Corey will be entirely satisfied. He has consented to the divorce. This understanding between Mr. Corey and the attorneys of Mrs. Corey was reached some time ago."

T. R. Chabourn, of Pittsburgh, also appeared as counsel for Mr. Corey, who was not present.

SCAFFOLD ERECTED BEFORE MAN IS TRIED

ALL PREPARATIONS MADE TO HANG ALLEN MATHIS.

VERDICT OF DEATH TO BE GIVEN IN SHORT ORDER.

QUICK LEGAL PROGRAMME.

Mayfield, Ky., July 30.—[Special.]—Early Monday morning thousands of men from all sections of the country came into town for the purpose of seeing what disposition would be made of Allen Mathis, the negro who assaulted Miss Ethel McLane last Wednesday afternoon. The negro was sent to Paducah Friday night for safe-keeping. He was carried through the country in a hack and followed by about 100 citizens of this county, who hoped to catch him and hang him, but they failed in their attempt, and County Judge Lightfoot, of McCracken county, ordered him sent to Louisville, where he is now in the safe-keeping of the jailer of that city.

He will be ordered away to-night by Circuit Judge Buga, of this court, and brought here Tuesday morning and safely guarded by the local militia of this city until he is tried. The special grand jury indicted him for criminal assault, and upon his arrival quick work will be made of him.

The scaffold has been built this afternoon in the yard of the jail and will be in perfect readiness to-morrow morning, when court convenes. It is thought that within one hour from the time he is carried before the Judge, that he will be convicted and hanged and his body consigned to the Potter's field. There has been great excitement here all day, but no demonstrations of a disorderly character. The citizens here are now willing that the law should take its course without the intervention of mob law.

MEYER TO GO TO CABINET

To Succeed Bonaparte In Naval Portfolio.

Latter Will Take Attorney General's Place.

Henry White Probable Ambassador to Russia.

OTHER POSSIBLE CHANGES.

Chicago, July 30.—[Special.]—A Washington dispatch to the Record-Herald says:

Rumors current sometime ago that George L. Meyer, Ambassador to Russia, would quit his post at St. Petersburg and become a member of the Roosevelt Cabinet, are now fully confirmed. The latest news from St. Petersburg regarding Ambassador Meyer's plans, indicate that the Cabinet changes which will make room for him at the President's council table are not far distant.

It is probable that Attorney General Moody would have retired from the Cabinet sometime ago to engage in the private practice of law, had not the anti-trust cases come to the front so prominently. Having taken an important part in the work of preparing for the trial of the Standard Oil cases, Mr. Moody wishes to see the prosecution fully under way before relinquishing the portfolio. The suits will be well along before snow flies in the North.

Will Succeed Bonaparte.

Secretary Bonaparte is slated to succeed Attorney General Moody, and Ambassador Meyer is slated to succeed Mr. Bonaparte as head of the Navy Department. The information that Ambassador Meyer has taken only a short leave of the Kleimichel palace, where he now resides, because he expects to remain in St. Petersburg only a short time, is regarded as assurance of the understanding between him and President Roosevelt respecting the Secretaryship of the Navy.

When Mr. Meyer becomes Secretary of the Navy—for it is regarded as so much of a certainty in Washington that it is hardly necessary to qualify it with any doubt—he will bring to that position an expert knowledge, such as has not been possessed by any predecessor of recent memory. At the present he is utilizing his position in the diplomatic service to make a systematic study of the general naval situation in Europe, and so will be able to take charge of the American naval service in a manner that would not be expected of a man chosen from private life here, no matter what his interest in it may have been or how zealous the man might be in its upbuilding.

White May Succeed Meyer.

There has been a good deal of speculation as to who will succeed Ambassador Meyer at St. Petersburg. It would not be a surprise if he were followed there by Henry White, who was appointed Ambassador to Rome when Ambassador Meyer was transferred to Russia. Russia as a storm center of world politics during the next few years will form a fine field for the diplomats of other nations, and the post will call for talent of a high order. Ambassador White's work as a member of the commission which represented the United States at the Moroccan conference last November was so eminently satisfactory that it is regarded as natural that he should be selected to perform another important mission such as the Russian Ambassadorship will be in the immediate future.

In the event that Ambassador White be transferred to St. Petersburg it is entirely probable that his successor at Rome will be one of the present lesser lights in the diplomatic service or else that there will be a change about which will afford opportunity for promotion somewhere else.

Promotion For Eddy.

Spencer F. Eddy, of Chicago, who has won rapid promotion since entering the diplomatic service in 1897, may, according to gossip here, come into charge of an Embassy or a legation as a result of the changes in prospect. After being private secretary to the Ambassador to Great Britain Mr. Eddy served as a clerk in the State Department for a short time, and then, in 1899, returned to London as third secretary of the Embassy. A few months later he became second secretary of the Embassy at Paris and in 1901 was appointed secretary of the Legation at Constantinople. He has been secretary of the Embassy at St. Petersburg since September, 1902, and his next step naturally would be to that of Minister or Ambassador.

Issues Maximum Tariff.

Chicago, July 30.—The Rock Island to-day issued a maximum tariff of 13 and 12 cents on wheat and coarse grain from intermediate points in Iowa and Missouri between the Missouri river and Chicago, effective July 31, the date of the expiration of the 8 and 9-cent proportional rate on grain between the Missouri river and Chicago. The move is considered a protest against back-haulage on staple commodities. The Missouri to Missouri river terminals to obtain the eight-cent through rate to Chicago.

TWO ARE KILLED AND SEVERAL HURT

BOILER OF VINCENNES PAPER MILLS EXPLODES.

PLANT PARTIALLY WRECKED—OTHER BUILDINGS DAMAGED.

LOSS ESTIMATED AT $15,000.

Vincennes, Ind., July 30.—A boiler explosion occurred at the plant of the Vincennes Paper Mills Company this morning shortly before 6 o'clock, causing the death of at least two men and injuring several others.

The Dead.

HARRY BORDERS, master mechanic. LAFE LEICHTY, fireman.

Fatally Injured.

Charles Conners, machinist. The engine-room is in a separate building, about 100 feet from the main plant. The boiler-room was completely wrecked, and one boiler was blown over the top of the main building, a hundred yards. In its passage it tore off part of the roof of the main building, tore down a tree and fell in the middle of the street. Fragments were blown several hundred yards and many windows in the neighborhood were shattered. The loss entailed is $15,000, covered by insurance.

The men killed are Harry Borders, a single man, fifty years of age, and Lafe Leichty, a married man, thirty-five years of age, both of Vincennes. Both were instantly killed and terribly mangled. Charles Conners, forty years of age, was blown about fifty feet and badly injured.

The historic house, which originally belonged to Gov. Harrison, of the Northwest Territory, was partially wrecked, every window being shattered. Mrs. Edward Shepard, wife of the owner of the mill, and who was living in the Harrison house, was slightly bruised.

All the telegraph wires were torn down by the explosion, so the town was without telegraph communication for many hours.

Charles Bollins was buried under the debris, but managed to extricate himself. He heard the gauge on the boiler burst, and saw Freeman Leichty attempt to stop the escape of steam. Bollins has a cut back of the left ear, a two-inch cut on the right cheek, a cut above the right eye, and a three-inch cut on the back of his left hand.

Leichty's body was blown at least fifty feet away from the building, and Borders badly mangled, was buried beneath the debris.

Among the persons injured by the explosion are the following: Mrs. Edwin Shepard, occupant of the old Harrison mansion, was slightly cut on the hand while in the yard at the old homestead.

Oliver Stone, leg bruised by flying timber.

Mrs. H. M. Martin, while in her kitchen, was struck by flying timber and her head was cut.

John Dohlan, burned by escaping steam.

Charles Conner, blown fifty feet, cut and bruised.

PENROSE HAS FIGHT OF LIFE

To Hold Pennsylvania Intact For Machine.

Reformers Give President a Gentle Hint.

He Will Not Talk Politics In Keystone State.

ATTITUDE OF NEWSPAPERS.

Washington, D. C., July 30.—[Special.]—The political campaign in Pennsylvania has opened in earnest, the letter of acceptance of Mr. Lewis Emery, the reform candidate for Governor, firing the first gun in hostilities that promise to be active. It is war to the knife, and the knife to the hilt between Boss Penrose's machine and the best elements of the Republican and Democratic parties from now on.

It appears that the exposure of the plans of Boss Penrose to further exploit President Roosevelt in behalf of his machine served to throw some cold water on his scheme. He had induced the President to give him a boost by a timely word in behalf of "Republican regularity." It was the boss' last card and he was backing it heavily.

Then the reform Republicans got into communication with Oyster Bay, and suggested that this was a State campaign; that State issues alone were involved; that the reform Republicans were not opposing the regular Republican Congressional ticket, and it was delicately hinted that Presidential interference in behalf of Boss Penrose's outfit was hardly in order. It was officially announced from Oyster Bay the other day that the President would not talk politics in Pennsylvania this fall.

Mr. Charles Emory Smith, formerly a member of President McKinley's Cabinet, and for a little while the Philadelphia Press, and now editor of the Philadelphia Press, one of the influential Republican newspapers of the Keystone State, was a recent visitor to Oyster Bay. Mr. Smith's paper has not formally come out against the regular State ticket, being somewhat conservative, like the Pittsburgh Dispatch, which occupies a similar field in the western part of the State, but the attitude of the Press has been very friendly to the reform movement.

Significant Editorial.

Politicians say that the Press and the Dispatch would have been in a difficult position if Roosevelt should come out openly for the boss' ticket. The Press was heart and soul for the reform movement in Philadelphia last fall, and this State agitation is declared to be but an expansion of that fight. The Press in its issue to-day has a significant editorial on the Emery letter of acceptance. It says in part:

Mr. Emery's letter of acceptance is the incisive and impressive deliverance of a reformer of strong fiber, of clean purpose and of robust will. He has something to say and he says it with directness, pungency and power. No hesitation here, no evasion, no irresolution, no timidity. Mr. Emery knows what he means and means what he says. He is for a battle against "political corruption and corporate greed," and he doesn't care who knows it.

His first point is that no national politics is involved in the State contest. He holds that all patriotic citizens can combine without regard to their national differences, for the redemption of the State. He does not renounce his Republicanism in becoming a candidate and no citizen abuses his party in supporting him.

Neither the Lincoln Republican or the Democrat is any less the one or the other because they unite in this movement. National issues for national representatives and State issues for State officers.

In the State the prime issue, as Mr. Emery conceives it, is to free the Commonwealth from corporate domination and political misrule. The two are inseparably associated. His supporters will find his letter an inspiring trumpet call. It rings with earnestness, courage and vigor. There is no note of equivocation or doubt. In the suggestion of practical measures of reform it is specific, definite and explicit in pledge. A campaign on the platform of this letter, led by a fighter as fearless as Mr. Emery, will evoke a great response from the State.

Mr. Emery's letter points out the fallaciousness of the Penrose appeal for "party regularity," and that is all the boss has in stock at this time.

Tobacco For Experiments.

The Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has issued a statement to Collectors regarding the right of the Department of Agriculture to purchase, free from tax, from manufacturers of tobacco or cigars, or from qualified dealers in leaf tobacco, manufactured leaf tobacco for the use of that department in making comparative tests of the different types of commercial tobacco and for experimental purposes. The Commissioner holds that, notwithstanding the restriction placed by law upon the sale of leaf tobacco for the revised statutes, the privilege given by the statutes of purchasing supplies of goods imported from foreign countries for the use of the United States, duty free, which privilege is also extended to all articles of domestic production which are subject to the tax, is deemed sufficient authority for permitting manufacturers of cigars or tobacco, or dealers in leaf tobacco, to sell to the Department of Agriculture, without payment of tax, such quantities of leaf

GAVE TO CHARITY

Miss Johnston Divided Estate With Church.

ENTERED CONVENT WITH VIEW TO TAKING THE VEIL.

DEVOTED NURSE OF CONFEDERATES DURING WAR.

FUNERAL THIS MORNING.

In accordance with the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, the blessed candles, fronted by the crucifix, burned all yesterday afternoon and last night at the head of the casket in which lay the body of Miss Henrietta Preston Johnston, in the parlor of St. Joseph's Infirmary. Miss Johnston, daughter of Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston, died at 8 o'clock Sunday night after an illness of several months. The body lay in state in the parlor of the infirmary all afternoon yesterday and last night, and at 9 o'clock this morning will be taken to the Cathedral of the Assumption, where requiem high mass will be sung. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Father Patrick M. J. Rock, assistant pastor of the Cathedral.

The members of Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, for the most part will attend the services, although the ceremonies will not be conducted by them. The burial will be in the Johnston lot in Cave Hill, where the bodies of Miss Johnston's mother and brother lie. As honorary pall-bearers J. Stoddard Johnston and Preston Rogers have been chosen. The active pall-bearers are to be Morton V. Joyce, Wallace McDowell, P. F. Satterwhite, Jr., Preston Davis, Preston Pope Rogers and Scott Bullitt. The burial will be private.

Many flowers were bunched about the casket and the room where the body lay last night. At the foot of the bier stood the customary floral design given by Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, U. D. C., when one of its members dies, only it was larger and more elaborate. It consisted of the "Stars and Bars" of the Confederacy, done in wreaths of amaranth, roses, carnations, resurrection lilies and lilies of the valley were laid on the top of the casket and elsewhere in the room.

Born in Missouri.

Miss Johnston was born April 13, 1832, at Jefferson Barracks, near St. Louis, while her father was stationed there. Her mother, who was a daughter of Maj. William Preston and Caroline Hancock Preston, both members of prominent Virginia families, died when she was a child of four years. From then on, she was reared in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Caroline Preston, and her aunt, Mrs. Susan Preston Eber, both of whom lived in Louisville. Her early education at Science Hill Academy, in Shelbyville, conducted by Miss Julia A. Tevis, was later supplemented by wide and careful reading.

She was distinctly of the intellectual type, and was well read in both history and other literature, and was an accomplished musician. She manifested no small talent as a writer both of poetry and prose, although nothing she wrote was ever given to the public. It is said of her that, had she devoted her energies to literature, she easily could have gained renown. In the '40's, she opened at St. Joseph's Infirmary a select school for girls and although she was overwhelmed with applications for membership, she continued that work for but a year or so.

Nursed During the War.

When the Civil War began she was in Louisville and, until her father's death, went about in the hospitals in Louisville and nearby nursing the wounded and giving what aid she could to the cause of the Confederacy. She was the favorite niece of her uncle, Gen. William Preston, and she followed her father. She followed his career in the early part of the war with close attention and when he was killed, the shock was almost fatal to her.

Lived at St. Joseph's Infirmary.

Returning to Louisville, she took up her home in St. Joseph's Infirmary where she lived in almost total seclusion of the sisters there until her death. Except for a few months she spent at Zions, on the Newburg road, in the past year, her home had been continuously at the infirmary. At first she was actively engaged in charitable and relief work conducted by the Catholic church. For the last few years she had been more or less of an invalid, and kept pretty much to the suite of rooms which she occupied. Her death was due to a fall from a street car several months ago, at which time she sustained a fracture of the collar bone and other injuries, which, to one in her seventy-fifth year, necessarily resulted fatally.

All her life she had been charitable and had given largely of her worldly goods, which were not inconsiderable, to philanthropic enterprises. Before she became a member of the Roman Catholic church, she had been a communicant of the Protestant Episcopal church, and was a pew holder at Christ Church Cathedral, to which she gave liberally. The site which is occupied by the Episcopal Orphan's Home, at 211 East College street, was a gift from her to the church.

Gave Largely to the Church.

Early after she became a member of the Roman Catholic church, she devoted the largest part of her inheritance between the church and some of her relatives. Many of the charities which have been conducted by the Catholic church in the Diocese of Louisville, it was said yesterday, were made possible largely through her liberality. She was known never to listen coldly to the appeals of the needy and the unfortunate, and is spoken of by the sisters at the infirmary as sweet and lovable in every way.

When the Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, was organized at the suggestion of Miss Julia D. Blackburn, it was the first purpose to elect her its first president. She, however, demurred to that. She was an honorary member of the chapter, and the president, Mrs. Andrew Broadbush, has issued a request that all members of the chapter attend the funeral services this morning.

Miss Johnston was connected with many of the leading families of the city and State. Her blood bound her to all of the branches of the Preston and the Johnston families. Her brother, Col. William Preston Johnston, who was a member of the faculty of Tulane University, New Orleans, died eight years ago. She was the only surviving child of Gen. Johnston by his first marriage, but is survived by two half sisters, Mrs. William B. Pritchard, of San Francisco, and Mrs. George J. Denis, of Los Angeles, Cal.

GARAGE TO BE BUILT AT SECOND AND BROADWAY.

Llewellyn Smith Buys Property From Drs. Cartledge and Bullitt.

Llewellyn Smith has purchased the property on the northeast corner of Second and Broadway from Dr. A. M. Cartledge and Dr. James B. Bullitt for $16,000. Dr. Cartledge said last night the deal had been closed several days. He said he understood that the old residence now occupying the lot is to be torn down and that a garage is to be erected on the site. The new garage will be a two-story brick and cement structure, and will be equipped with a recovering and tire plant for automobiles, and will have a complete tool department.

"I am unable to state just what the garage will cost, as before we are through," said Mr. Smith last night. "The structure will have a frontage on Broadway of 120 feet and on Second street of 130 feet."

Work on the new structure will be started as soon as the plans are completed.

WANT SUPERINTENDENT TO INVESTIGATE.

New York Merchants' Association Thinks Certain Insurance Companies Are Bankrupt.

New York, July 30.—The Merchants' Association of New York to-night made public a letter which recently was sent by the organization to the State Superintendent of Insurance, Otto Kelsey, at Albany, asking that he make an investigation into the solvency of certain fire insurance companies operating in New York State. Mr. Kelsey's reply, in which he stated that the insurance department will endeavor to discharge its full duty under the statutes and as required by its obligation to the people also was given out. The letter of the Merchants' Association to Mr. Kelsey called attention to current talk in insurance circles affecting a number of companies whose assets are said to be badly impaired, if indeed the corporations are not bankrupt mainly because of the San Francisco fire.

The letter declared that from information received by the Merchants' Association, it was believed that some alleged insolvent Western companies continue to do business in the East and make prompt settlement of small losses, while their adjusters on the Pacific coast are doing everything in their power to scale down claims and defer settlements on the plea of inability to pay in full.

NO RESISTANCE.

Mrs. Hardesty Goes to New Orleans Without Papers.

STOUTLY PROTESTS HERSELF INNOCENT OF CHARGES.

ATTORNEY SAYS MONEY SHE HAS BELONGS TO HER.

IS WEAK FROM OPERATION.

Looking pale and wan from the effects of a serious surgical operation which she underwent at the Deaconess Hospital July 5, Mrs. Susie Hardesty left Louisville at 9:30 o'clock last night in company with State Agent J. P. Glenn and Fred Cripp, of New Orleans, over the Illinois Central railroad for that city, where she will face a charge of alleged embezzlement of $40,000.

"It is only because of my illness that I have not gone to New Orleans before this, although my attorney, Mr. Pennebaker, has urged me to resist extradition. I believe that my innocence will soon be established and that I may be able to seek rest in some quiet place until I have fully regained my health. I hardly think the newspapers have been quite fair with me—they have only presented one side of the case, you know."

State Agent Glenn arrived here Friday and waited until Mrs. Hardesty's physician, Dr. W. D. Berry, sanctioned her removal from the hospital. Yesterday morning the physician expressed the opinion that Mrs. Hardesty had sufficiently recovered to undertake the railroad journey and in the afternoon Detectives Sexton, Brown and Sullivan called at the hospital and placed her under arrest. She was taken to the Central police station in a carriage, where her name and the nature of the charge preferred against her were entered on the station slate. She was then placed in charge of State Agent Glenn, who accompanied her to the Willard Hotel, where with Mrs. Maxwell, they took dinner. From the hotel the party journeyed to the railroad station in a carriage a half hour before train time.

Gave Herself Up.

"Mrs. Hardesty gave herself up to the authorities," said her attorney, E. K. Pennybaker, last night, although I believe that she could have successfully resisted arrest in some quiet place, but she was not a fugitive from justice, did not receive the money which she is alleged to have taken in from the State of Louisiana and in fact did not commit embezzlement. The Governor of Louisiana, on the representations of Edward Burns, of New Orleans, issued extradition papers for Mrs. Hardesty. At the time the papers arrived here, Mrs. Hardesty was a patient at the hospital. The Governor of Kentucky did not issue a warrant for her arrest; in fact the signed warrant has not arrived yet, but Mrs. Hardesty, knowing herself to be perfectly innocent of the charge preferred against her, has decided to go to New Orleans with Mr. Glenn without her having any authority to take her there. I believe that Mrs. Hardesty is a very much wronged woman. As to the money which she is alleged to have embezzled, it has been in her possession months and I have the affidavits of two witnesses named by Burns in his indictment as witnesses for the State which conclusively show that Mrs. Hardesty gave months ago in the city of Los Angeles, had in her possession a sum of money in excess of that which she is alleged to have taken and that some of it is the identical currency which she is accused of having embezzled. Mrs. Hardesty was born in Lexington, comes of an excellent family and she is well known and respected there. She developed her illness and came to Kentucky, her home, for surgical treatment. That is all there is to the story."

MAINS TO GLENVIEW.

SUBURBANITES WANT WATER FROM LOUISVILLE PLANT.

Looking To Plan To Supply Harrods Creek Later On.

Residents at Glenview and its vicinity are making preliminary plans for the organization of a stock company with the object of laying a water main from the Louisville waterworks to that settlement, so they may have the advantages of city water for domestic use. The plan is to lay a six-inch water main, with its own fire protection. Thomas Floyd Smith and John Price are the prime movers in the project, in which twenty-five or thirty of their neighbors are interested.

It is not a money-making plan. The idea is to lay a water main from the Louisville waterworks to that settlement, so they may have the advantages of city water for domestic use. The plan is to lay a six-inch water main, with its own fire protection. Thomas Floyd Smith and John Price are the prime movers in the project, in which twenty-five or thirty of their neighbors are interested.

Similar arrangements are in effect in Mocking Bird Valley, which is about half the distance from Louisville to Glenview. Two years ago the residents of that locality engineered a similar plan to a satisfactory conclusion, and now they and their neighbors have city water, with its advantages and at moderate cost. It is the intention of those who are planning to provide the water supply for Glenview to lay a main large enough to supply water to Harrods Creek, although it is somewhat limited in quantity.

She started a fire in her cottage yesterday when in some manner her dress caught. Death came to-day after terrible agony. She was a sister of Bishop Perry, of the Methodist church.

FORCED BY POVERTY TO GIVE HIMSELF UP

FORMER MAYOR OF PATERSON NOW IN JAIL.

FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE SINCE AUGUST 1, 1905.

ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

Pateron, N. J., July 30.—William H. Belcher, former Mayor of this city, returned to Pateron early to-day on a train on the Erie railroad and surrendered himself to David Morris, night watchman of the county jail. Belcher was forced by his poverty to give himself up. He had been in New York for several days. He declared he had no means with which to make restitution of the funds which he is alleged to have obtained before he fled from the city, and that he was back to answer the charges against him.

Belcher has not been out of the country in spite of rumors that he was in the Hawaiian Islands and China. Since his disappearance he has wandered about the country, obtaining employment where and when he could, and was finally forced by stress of circumstances to return to the city, where he once had friends. Belcher has been missing since August 1, 1905. At the time he left Pateron a few of his closest friends were ready to draw him out of financial difficulties. They did not know at the time that he was charged with having obtained $20,000 by fraudulent representation and that $5,000 was taken from the Manchester Building and Loan Association, of which he was the president.

Belcher to-day told the story of his wanderings. He said that he went to Bartlett, N. H., to recover from rheumatism, and stopped there for a time under an assumed name. "I have been in Boston and the White Mountains," he said. "Only once I left the country for a short trip to Canada. I have been in pretty nearly every State in the Union since I went away. I have not seen a face I knew since I left Pateron. I am glad to be here, although I am a prisoner."

"What have you done with the money you got?" he was asked. "That is a subject of which I am not willing to speak at this time," replied Belcher. "If $100,000 is gone someone else must have got it and blamed it on me; but I shall implicate no one in what I did. I shall stand alone. The stories that I am going to implicate several officers in the city government are false."

"There were many times when I was absent, when I would have welcomed arrest."

A dozen indictments have been found against Belcher in which he is accused of embezzling about $150,000. The Manchester Building and Loan Association, of which he was president, was forced to go into bankruptcy.

Going To Lake Geneva.
